

Cozy Christmas Treats

Very Merry Christmas Cocoa

12 C powdered milk
5 C chocolate Nesquik
2 C powdered sugar
2 C non-dairy creamer
wide mouth pint mason jars mini chocolate chips
mini marshmallows
gift tag/instruction labels

Mix powdered milk, Nesquik, sugar, and creamer in a large bowl. Pour cocoa mix into Mason jars, layering with mini marshmallows and chocolate chips. Use the labels below to complete the cocoa project. The kids can sign the gift tags. Secure lids with instructions inside rim. Tie a festive ribbon around the jar.

Chocolate Mint Stirring Sticks

candy canes
milk chocolate chips
holiday sprinkles
colored sugar
crushed candy canes
cello bags
ribbon

Unwrap candy canes. Melt chocolate chips in the microwave. Dip candy canes in melted chocolate. Decorate with Christmas sprinkles, colored sugar, or crushed candy canes. Allow to cool on waxed paper. Place candy in cello bags. Tie to mason jars filled with cocoa.

The cocoa mix is great for hostess gifts, a Christmas treat for the neighbors, or the babysitter. Pair the mix with a plate or tin of Christmas cookies for a super sweet treat!

FaithFirstParent.com

Merry Christmas!

FaithfulGrandparenting.com

Merry Christmas Cocoa

Add 3 T of mix to a cup of hot water. Stir with candy cane for a chocolate mint treat.

With love,

A happy heart makes the face cheerful...
Proverbs 15:13a

Merry Christmas Cocoa

Add 3 T of mix to a cup of hot water. Stir with candy cane for a chocolate mint treat.

With love,

A happy heart makes the face cheerful...
Proverbs 15:13a

Print, cut out, and sign the labels. Use a hole punch to secure the label to the cocoa container. If using Mason jars, the label will fit on top of the lid and under the rim.

Merry Christmas Cocoa

Add 3 T of mix to a cup of hot water. Stir with candy cane for a chocolate mint treat.

With love,

A happy heart makes the face cheerful...
Proverbs 15:13a

Merry Christmas Cocoa

Add 3 T of mix to a cup of hot water. Stir with candy cane for a chocolate mint treat.

With love,

A happy heart makes the face cheerful...
Proverbs 15:13a